Dr. Costigan,

I thought I would send you an email to stay in touch. I was asked to send my resume to Roger Williams University for a potential teaching position but still wanted to be express my interest in teaching at CCRI should the opportunity become available.

I understand you are very busy but if a teaching position should open up and you would like to meet, I would love to express my interest in being part of the CCRI teaching staff.

Thank you for your consideration and I appreciate you keeping me in mind. Take care!

Respectfully,
Robert Cardente

Hi Rob,

April 2020

Dear Steve,

This small token of appreciation is overdue, thanks to COVID-19.

I always found TR's words, especially this, helpful in time of leadership challenges. We always were working towards the same thing - good teaching, successful students and a great family. They will and hope to see you soon. It takes guts to do our jobs ^{Hallmark} and I'd say we have them!

Best
Dawnery
